Columbia Dry Batteries
work better and last longer

- for bells and buzzers
- for thermostats
- for gas engines
- for dry battery lighting in closet, cellar, garret, barn, etc.
- for ignition on the Ford while starting. Put an end to cold weather "balks"

The world's most famous dry battery, used where group of individual cells is needed. Fastest Spring Clip Binding Posts at no extra charge

You want the quick start—

START your Ford car quick, no matter how cold the weather, on a Columbia "Hot Shot" Ignition Battery No. 1461. One package, 6 volts. Superior to a wired-up group of ordinary cells. Works better, lasts longer. Ideal for stationary gas engines, too. For bells and buzzers, you need but one Columbia "Bell Ringer." Little package—big power.

Sold by electricians, auto accessory shops and garages, hardware and general stores. The name Columbia is on the label.

Columbia Dry Batteries
—they last longer

THE name Carey on the package indicates that the roofing or shingle is made of Carey Asphalt by the oldest and most experienced makers of roll roofings in the country.

The Underwriters' label is a guarantee that a representative of the associated fire insurance companies has inspected the material and pronounced it to be fire-resisting and spark-proof.

Our own name signed to this advertisement means that we know the endurance and quality of this roofing from our own observation, and believe it to be the best ready roofing and the best value for the money that has ever been put on the market.

Anyone can apply Carey Roofing or Shingles and no painting or up-keep expense is necessary afterward.

UNCLE JOE'S JOKE.

Uncle Joe Carlisle, of Del Rio sends us the following contribution:

An old man named Jake Baldwin, lost his hat in an old dry well one day, hitched a rope to a stump and let himself down. A wicked wag named Neal came along just then and, quickly detaching a bell from Baldwin's old blind horse approached the well bell in hand, and began a ting-a-ling.

Jake thought the horse was coming and said: "Hang the old blind horse! He's coming this way sure, and he ain't got no more sense than to fall in on me. Whoa, Ball!"

"Great Jerusalem. The old blind fool will be right on top of me in a minit, Whoa, Ball! Whoa, Ball!"

Neal kicked a little dirt on Jack's head, and Jack began to pray:

"O Lord hve mercy on—whoa, Ball—a poor sinner. I'm gone now—Whoa Ball! Our Father, who art in—Whoa Ball—hallowed be thy—gee Ball—gee, what'll I do?—name. Now I lay me down to sl—gee, Ball! (Just then in fell more dirt.) O Lord if you intend to do anything for me—back, Ball! Whoa!—thy kingdom come—gee Ball! O Lord you know I was baptized in Smith's mill dam—Whoa, Ball! Ho Up! Murder! Whoa!"

Neal could hold in no longer and shouted a laugh which might have been heard two miles, which was about as far as Jack chased him when he got out.—Ex.

PRINTER WAS PEEVED.

Charley Harris, of Fort Worth, Texas, a friend of Mr. Nubbiners in the printing business got slightly peeved at a letter from a doctor who wanted bids on several thousand letterheads, different sizes, different grades and different colors, and wanted the printing form held standing. So Charley took his typewriter in hand and wrote:

"Am in the market for bids on one operation for appendicitis. One, two or five-inch incisions—with or without ether—also with or without nurse. If appendix is found to be sound, want quotations to include putting same back and canceling order. If removed, successful bidder is expected to hold incision open for about sixty days, as I expect to be in the market for an operation for gallstones at that time and want to save the extra cost of cutting."—Kansas City Post.

SALE OF LAND

In obedience to a decree of the County Court at Crossville, Cumberland County, Tennessee, made in the case of James Edward Dayton, vs. Clay Dayton, et al., I will on 28th, November, 1921, at noon, in front of the Court house door in Crossville, sell to the highest and best bidder the tract of land, in said decree described, being the farm on which J. M. T. Caudell now resides, in the 1st. Civil District of Cumberland county, and containing thirty-six acres more or less.

Said sale will be on a credit of 6 and 12 months, and in bar of the equity of redemption. Notes bearing interest from date of sale with good personal security will be required of the purchaser; and a lien will be retained on the property sold, as further security. No bid will be accepted for less than $600.00.

This November 4, 1921.

W. D. HEDGECOTE,
County Court Clerk.
